Negroes Run with Mill.

A silk mill at Charlotte, N. C., is run with negro labor entirely, a colored man named Thurston being superintendent. He maintains discipline among the hands, male or female, by whipping those who break rules. The loom is laid on vigorously, and a second does is seldom needed.

MAY BE NO STRIKE.

IT IS BY NO MEANS CERTAIN THAT THE DECISION WILL RESULT IN ONE.

It is by no means certain that a strike will be forced by the decision of the main body of machinists in case no agreement is reached between them and the Illinois Central officials in Chicago.

Such matters are decided by vote of the separate bodies, and the machinists in many, if not all of the places, appear to be satisfied with the working hours and the wages paid them, and in case a call for a strike is made, would doubtless in many places refuse to strike.

In Paducah this feeling of contentment seems to pervade them all, and very little interest seems to be manifested in the agitation at Chicago. Local officials are confident there will be no strike here.

COMING BOUTS.

THE SPORTS EXPECT TO BE IN IT DURING THE CARNIVAL.

The local sports have signed several light and middle weight pugilists to give an exhibition in this city during the carnival celebrations. They have also been in correspondence with several heavy weight fighters and will probably close the contract with a well known Louisville fighter to go against a St. Louis man. The names of the fighters will be published this week when all have been signed. The bouts will be pulled off in one of the big tobacco warehouses.

DR. W. E. CAVE TWICE DECLINES TO GO TO PETERSBURG, VA.

Rev. W. E. Cave, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has declined the second call from the Presbyterian church at Petersburg, Va., which means he will remain in Paducah. His many friends will be very glad to learn of this decision.

The Petersburg church was very anxious to get him, and would not be satisfied with the first declination. The second call was naturally more urgent than the first, and a great compliment to the popular minister.
